

Die Fäustchen

proudly presents:

The University Of Sheffield.

DAAD

“Gretchen 89ff”

von Lutz Hübner

Wednesday 3rd and Friday 5th March 2010, 7 pm,
Firth Hall, University of Sheffield

For tickets (£3) contact:

b.ehrenhart@shef.ac.uk

Die Fäustchen

The University Of Sheffield.

DAAD

„Hoffentlich spielen sie es so wie es ist!... Wie ist es denn?...Ist es, wie es ist so, wie der Autor es vor seinem geistigen Auge gesehen hat?“

Lutz Hübner's Gretchen 89ff is a play delving into the mad world of theatre production. Taking a scene from Goethe's classic 'Faust' as the basis for the play, we are introduced to ten different pairs of directors and their actors, each with their own idea as to how Faust should be performed on stage: from the outrageously inappropriate Freudianer to the fabulously bossy Diva. This action-packed play explores the precarious relationship between directors and the cast, and the sometimes comic, sometimes tragic consequences of interpretation when putting together a theatre production.

„Die Fäustchen“ is a Drama Group consisting of Germanic Studies students from the University of Sheffield. They are proud to be able to present this play, which will be entirely in German. Musical interludes will be provided by the departmental band, playing a selection of popular German music.

0114 222 4908