

The University
Of Sheffield.

Management
School.

MSc in Management
(Health Services Management).

MSc in Management (Health Services Management)

Become a health services manager of the future with this specialist course. You'll learn general management techniques and develop your understanding of organisational management preparing you for a career in the rewarding but challenging area of health services management.

Profile of typical candidate

This programme is likely to appeal to graduates wanting to pursue a management career within health services.

Entry Specification

A 2:1 honours degree or better, or approved professional qualification.

Our standard English requirement for overseas students is IELTS 7.0 (with no less than 6 in each part). If you are unable to take IELTS we will consider TOEFL 600 with TWE 4.5 (paper-based) or TOEFL 260, TWE 5.0 (computer-based) or equivalent.

Course content

Two taught semesters, followed by a dissertation.

Core modules

- Accounting & Financial Management
- Managing People in Organisations
- Marketing Management
- Operations and Supply Chain Management
- Strategic Management
- Research Methods
- International Health: Systems and Policy
- Health Services Management

Optional modules (you choose one)

- Health Care Information
- Strategic Management of Information

Teaching

- Lectures
- Seminars
- Case Studies
- Group work for collaborative learning
- Web-based discussion groups

Assessment

- Individual assignments
- Group projects
- End-semester examinations
- Dissertation

Certificate/Diploma in Management (Health Services Management)

Students who successfully complete the first semester but do not proceed receive the PG Certificate. Those who pass both semesters' modules but do not complete the dissertation receive the Diploma.

Contact for enquiries:

Karen Hector + 44 (0) 114 222 3379

Email: K.Hector@sheffield.ac.uk

Find out more about this course and the School of Management

www.sheffield.ac.uk/management/postgraduates