

The University
Of Sheffield.

DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY

DEPARTMENTAL RESEARCH SEMINAR PROGRAMME

Tuesday 9th February, 4.15pm: Dr Alexandra Shepard (University of Glasgow):

'Worth and the Evaluation of Social Status in Early Modern England'

Tuesday 23rd February, 4.15pm: Professor Peter Burke (University of Cambridge):

'The Rise and Fall of the Polymath, 1500-2000'
(Sheffield Lecture, Jessop West Exhibition Space)

Wednesday 3rd March, 4.15pm: Professor Quentin Skinner (Queen Mary, London):

'A Genealogy of Liberty'
(Sheffield Lecture, Humanities Research Institute)

Tuesday 9th March, 4.15pm: Dr Simon Ditchfield (University of York):

'Going glocal: Rethinking the Counter Reformation in the 21st Century'

Tuesday 16th March, 4.15pm: David Coast (University of Sheffield):

'Rumours and Memes. Social Science Approaches to Early Modern Misinformation'
(Jessop West Exhibition Space)

Tuesday 13th April, 4.15pm: George Newberry (University of Sheffield):

'"A Spurious Race": The Racialisation of Sex and its Consequences across Eighteenth-Century British Culture'

Tuesday 20th April, 4.15pm: Professor Andreas Gestrich (German Historical Institute London):

'The Glasgow Night Asylum. A Study in Nineteenth Century Urban Poverty and Philanthropy'

Tuesday 27th April, 4.15pm: Dr Moritz Föllmer (University of Leeds):

'Jews and Individuality in Nazi Berlin'

Tuesday 4th May, 4.15pm: Professor Frank Trentmann (Birkbeck, University of London):

'After Affluence: New Histories of Consumer Society'

Tuesday 11th May, 4.15pm: Dr Kendrick Oliver (University of Southampton):

'Signals of Transcendence': The Rise and Fall of Space-Age Theology'

Jessop West G.03, 1 Upper Hanover Street.