

Randomised Controlled Trials in Public Health and Health Services Research

Trial design and implementation for complex interventions

One Day Conference

Organised by the University of Sheffield Clinical Trials Research Unit in collaboration with the Society for Social Medicine

Tuesday 7th April 2009 • 9.15 - 16.00
St Mary's Conference Centre • Sheffield

The conference fee is £75.00 for SSM members and £90.00 for non-members

Plenary Sessions

Professor Mark Petticrew – London School of Hygiene & Tropical Medicine

What counts as evidence? Trials and other sources of evidence in public health

Professor Steve Goodacre – The University of Sheffield

Trials of complex interventions in a complex environment

Richard Kay, Independent Statistical Consultant, UK

Issues in non-inferiority trials

Workshops:

Professor David Torgerson – York Trials Unit

Avoiding Biases in Randomised Trials

Professor Mike Campbell & Steven Julious – The University of Sheffield

Adaption in ongoing clinical trials: the what, whys and wherefores

Professor Glenys Parry & Professor Michael Barkham - The University of Sheffield

Trials and tribulations: towards better design and practice in psychological therapy trials

Registration

To register for this conference, please download a registration form from www.sheffield.ac.uk/ctru/ssm\_2009.html or contact either Karen Beck on 0114 222 0795 or at Karen.beck@sheffield.ac.uk or David White on 0114 222 0807 or at d.a.white@sheffield.ac.uk