

ESRC Seminar Series

E · S · R · C
ECONOMIC & SOCIAL RESEARCH COUNCIL

The Politics of Recognition

University of Sheffield

11.00am—17.00pm, Friday 24 April 2009
Inter-disciplinary Centre of the Social Sciences.

Recognition

'The Politics of Recognition: Challenges for Democracy'

- Can liberal democratic societies accommodate group demands for cultural recognition?
- Can recognition be incorporated within law-making and constitutions?
- Have conflicts over recognition become an every day feature of political life?

Speakers:

Melissa Williams (University of Toronto)
Shamit Saggar (University of Sussex)
Lydia Morris (University of Essex)
Michael Kenny (University of Sheffield)
Rick Muir (Institute for Public Policy Research)
Cillian McBride (Queen's University, Belfast)

If you are interested in attending this event. Admission is free but by ticket only. Please contact Mrs Margaret Holder (m.holder@shef.ac.uk) for further information.

Funded by Economic and Social Research Council with further support from the School of Politics, International Studies, and Philosophy, Queen's University Belfast.

A limited number of small grants will be available to postgraduate students to cover travel costs to these seminars.

For further information about this series of seminars, please e-mail:
esrcrecognition@qub.ac.uk