

Materializing Culture Workshop: Home life
March 7th 2008
ICOSS, University of Sheffield

- 9.30-9.45 Introduction from the Group
- 9.45 -11.15 Session 1 : Materializing Memory in the Home
Daniela Petrelli (Information Studies) Objects of memory in the home: An ethnographic study of families with young children
Nissa Ramsay (Geography) Tourist souvenirs, refraction and the relational spatialities of the home
Jenny Hockey (Sociological Studies) Materializing Absence. The Return of the Dead?
- 11.15-11.40 Coffee Break
- 11.40-12.45 Session 2: Homing in on the Dinner Table
Julie Banham (History) Consuming Politeness
Richard Jenkins (Sociological Studies) The Nation that Eats Together
- 12.45-14.00 Lunch
Brief Introduction to the 'The Walking Voices' Project from Clare Risbeth (Landscape), with an opportunity to discuss the project and see some of the outputs over lunch
- 14.00-15.30 Session 3: Home and Homeland
Kate Pahl (School of Education) The case of the disappearing object: Translating objects in homes and in museums
Elizabeth Carnegie (Management School) 'Made out of necessity and imagination': Interpreting the material culture of everyday life within 'the besieged city' that was Sarajevo
Bridget Bennett (English, University of Leeds) Home Life: Homeland: Homesteads and The Wizard of Oz
- 15.45-16.00 Coffee Break
- 16.00-17.00 Session 4: Digest, Discussions and Where Next – Developing the Network with Polly Russell (British Library)
- 17.00-17.30 Closing Conversations with refreshments in the Foyer